BIOGRAPHY

Norhaniza binti Abdul Khairi is a seasoned lecturer with over 16 years of dedicated experience in teaching phonetics. Her expertise extends to extensive research in both fieldwork and laboratory environments. Norhaniza specializes in phonetics related to the Malay language and its dialects, encompassing areas such as phonetic acoustics, sociophonetics, applied phonetics, and phonology. She has a particular professional focus on analyzing Malay dialects using advanced software such as Praat. Notably, Norhaniza is committed to ensuring inclusivity in her teaching, providing support to students with diverse learning needs, including blind students learning phonetics. Throughout her career, she has consistently demonstrated a commitment to advancing knowledge in phonetics through rigorous academic research and practical application, making significant contributions to the field.
