BIOGRAPHY

Aiza Maslan @ Baharudin is a senior lecturer in Philosophy and Civilization Section, School of Humanities, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), Penang, Malaysia. She obtained her doctorate (PhD) from the University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and a Master of Arts from the same university. Her research interests focus on hajj studies particularly the history of the Malay's hajj since the age of ships. At the international level, she was invited as a guest speaker from the Malay Heritage Centre, Singapore, to present her studies on the history of hajj in the conference "From Kampong Kaji to the Holy City: Scholarship and Stories of the Hajj Conference". She was also invited as a guest speaker at the Borneo Undergraduate Association Forum organized by the Antasari State Islamic University, Banjarmasin, Southern Kalimantan to share her experience of how her hajj studies were featured in several documentaries. In addition, she was also invited by the Department of Historical Sciences, Faculty of Letters and Humans Sciences at Université Laval, Quebec City, Canada to present a hajj study entitled "Hajj Management in Malaysia Since 1969" in a roundtable discussion focusing on hajj policy covering sub-Saharan Africa, Maghrib, Middle East and Asia. Publications produced by Aiza Maslan @ Baharudin often focus on interdisciplinary contexts in hajj studies. Until now, she has successfully produced various works, including edited books, papers in local and international scientific journals, chapters in books, and other publications. She is also continuously invited to review journal articles and conference papers both locally and abroad. Her research on hajj studies has been featured in several documentaries such as Haji Dulu-dulu (RTM), Jejak Rasul (TV3) and Merentas Samudera ke Nusantara (Astro Oasis). She is also interested in the research focusing on the Banjarese.
