BIOGRAPHY

Roshimah binti Shamsudin is an Associate Professor in the Islamic Studies Division, School of Humanities, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), Penang. She began her service at USM in 2010. She earned her bachelor's degree from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) in the field of Revealed Knowledge and Islamic Heritage, specializing in Quran and Sunnah Studies, with a minor in History and Civilization. She pursued her master's degree at the University of Malaya in Usuluddin, specializing in Quran and Hadith Studies. Subsequently, she completed her PhD in 2010 at Universiti Sains Malaysia, focusing on Hadith Studies. Roshimah was previously a Visiting Lecturer at the Kulliyah of Shariah, University of Jordan, for six months in 2015-2016. She was also invited to serve as a Visiting Lecturer at the Institut Agama Islam Negeri (IAIN) Sultan Amai Gorontalo, Sulawesi, Indonesia (2023–2024). Additionally, in 2024, she served as a guest lecturer at Skyline University College, Dubai, United Arab Emirates, delivering a series of lectures on various topics, including:

- Women Empowerment in Malaysia from the Perspective of Hadith
- The Relationship Between Individual and Society: Exploring Women's Role in the Malaysian Context
- Parental Roles in Children's Education: Balancing the Rights of Mothers and Fathers in the Malaysian Islamic Family Structure
- Balancing Rights and Responsibilities: A Comparative Study of Husband and Wife's Roles in Islamic Family Law in Malaysia

Beyond producing scholarly works in the form of books, journal articles, book chapters, and proceedings at both national and international levels, she has supervised more than 60 postgraduate students through research and mixed-mode programs. Currently, she is a member of the Publication and Sermon Committee under the Mufti Department of Perlis. She has also been appointed as a Judge at the Shariah Court of Appeal, State of Perlis, effective from October 2, 2023, to October 1, 2026.
