BIOGRAPHY

Associate Professor Dr. Mohd Farid was educated at the Academy of Islamic Studies, Universiti Malaya. He later received his doctoral degree in Islamic Studies from the prestigious Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies (IMES), University of Edinburgh, Scotland in 2006. He has been teaching at the Section of Islamic Studies, School of Humanities, Universiti Sains Malaysia, since 2006 and is currently Associate Professor in the School of Humanities. His travels have taken him throughout the Islamic world. He has delivered papers at Edinburgh, Durham, Glasgow, Cardiff, Leeds, Manchester, Amsterdam, Daejeon, Osaka, Tehran, Kano, Hangzhou and Medan. Dr. Mohd Farid is recognized as a specialist of the Syrian theologian-mufti Ibn Taymiyyah. He also explored the influence of Ibn Taymiyyah on later Sunnism, modern Islamism and Islamic revival in the Muslim world. His research areas are primarily in the field of Islamic thought and issues in contemporary Muslim. Amongst his most recent publications are, Kontroversi Ibn Taymiyyah, Penerbit Popular USM, 2024, Badiuzzaman Said Nursi dan Pembaharuan Dakwah di Turkiye, Penerbit UniSZA, 2024 (co-author), Sekolah Agama dan Pendidikan Islam Negeri Johor: Agenda Transformasi (editor) and Ibn Taymiyyah on Jihad and Baghy, Penerbit USM, 2011. He has held research grants from Yayasan Dakwah Islamiah Malaysia and Universiti Sains Malaysia on issues in contemporary Muslim. His most recent grant is from Kementerian Pendidikan Tinggi on the theme of Philanthropy in Islamic thought. In 2009 he served as a member of the editorial board for International Journal of Asia Pacific Studies (IJAPS) and since 2017, he has served on the editorial board for KEMANUSIAAN the Asian Journal of Humanities (KAJH). He has also served on the General Council of the University of Edinburgh, The British Association for Islamic Studies (BRAIS) and Majlis Profesor Negara (MPN). Through his writings and lectures, Dr. Farid has contributed to the debate on the issues of Muslims in the West and East and Islamic revival in the Muslim world. He is also active at academic and grassroots levels lecturing extensively throughout the country on theology, ethics, social justice and interfaith dialogue.
